THE FRIEND

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

1226 ½ Sheets. Double

VOLUME LXXII.

150006

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WM. H. PILE'S SONS,
1899.

XUM

Per
g 7911

INDEX.

Advice that is helpful in character-building is of the Holy Spirit, 115.
Made good by sympathy, 292.
Affirmations instead of oaths becoming more frequent in courts, 233. 250.
Agents for THE FRIEND. Names of, 23. 200.
Agriculture. Illustration of the fact that "farming does pay," 206.
Education in, needed in our schools, 300. 324.
The newly discovered value of the Russian thistle, 309.
Scientific knowledge required in the development of, 324.
Alaska. Brief sketch of the romantic life of the present Governor of, 230.
Alexander Alice and the times of the Beacon. On, 115.
"All glorious within." Remarks on building places for worship entitled, 382.
Alone with God, 23. 73.
Aluminum. On some of the properties of, 317.
Amsterdam. Account of the John Warder school in, 173. 196.
Anaesthesia. The first use of nitrous oxide in producing. 395.
Andrews Edward. A Friends' meeting at Tuckerton established through the faithfulness of, 337.
Anecdotes. Remark on relating too many, 73.
Appeal from some popular diversions to the witness of the Spirit. An, 342.
Apponegansett Meeting. Notice of the proposed observance of the 200th anniversary of, 375.
Aquarium at Castle Garden, New York. Account of the, 62.
Araucanians of Chili, Account of the, 242.
Arbitration. Notice of the proceedings of the fourth Mohonk Conference on International, 12.
The award in the Behring Sea, paid by the United States 28.
The desires of the Czar Alexander I. for International, 118.
Notices of the voices of prominent men in the United States in favor of, 306.
Notice of the proceedings of the Lake Mohonk Conference of 1899 in regard to, 374. 390.
Arbutus. Spare the trailing, 366.
Armenia. How relief to starving thousands in, was given in 1897, 195.
Army of teachers. Notice of the National Education Association, entitled, An, 19.
Arnold Thomas. Remarks on the influence for good of, 355.
Art versus religion, 292.
Assyrian inscriptions. The Holy Scriptures confirmed by, 323. 330.

Bamboo and its many uses. The, 290.
Baptism with water. Remarks of Bishop Hargrove against, 293.
Baptists against clerical titles. Remarks on, 218.
Barbadoes. On the decline of Friends in, 11.
Barclay John. On abiding in Christ, 262.
Barclay's Apology. Copies of, presented by Friends to Plenipotentiaries at Aix-la-Chapelle in 1748, 362.
Convincement of Geo. W. Reed through the instrumentality of, 383.
Barnacles. Illustration of the effect of bad habits, entitled, 20.
Barnard Hannah. Remarks on the views of and disownment of, 349.
Barnard Prof. Edward E. Notice of the early career of, as an astronomer, 131.
Barnegat, N. J. Notices of remarkable events attending meetings of Friends in, 337.
Bates Elisha. Notice of the life of, and connection with the Beacon controversy, 363.
Beacon controversy. An account of the, by George Vaux, 349. 354. 362.
Bean Joel. On the disownment of, and others by a Monthly Meeting in Iowa, 163. 135. 167. 183.
Bean Joel. Notice of the rescinding of its above-mentioned action by New Providence Monthly Meeting, 257.
Extracts from a private letter of, 282.
Proposed voyage of, and wife to the Hawaiian Islands, 367.
Behring Sea arbitration. The final payment by the United States of the award in the, 28.
Better part not taken away. Extract from a letter entitled, The, 302.
Bible. On the inconsistency of swearing by the, which commands us not to swear, 233.
Schools. An objection of Friends to, 273.
Bibles of heathendom. The, 399.
Birds. On caring for the, 46.
On the wholesale destruction of, to fill the demands of women, 52. 212.
The cruelty to ostriches in plucking their feathers, 221.
A method of interesting children in, 340.
Bismarck. Expressions of, concerning his allegiance to God, 15.
Bishop A, enlightened, 231.
Blind man's prayer. Incident entitled, The, 86.
Blue Ridge Mission. The work and needs of the, 61. 127.
Blue Soluble used in bluing clothes. On, 278.
Book Notices, etc. A Quaker experiment in government, by Isaac Sharpless, 34. 50.
Wayside Rhymes, by Mahlon Oliphant, 66.
The family of Wm. Penn, etc., by H. M. Jenkins, 127, 375.
Isaac Sharp, an apostle of the 19th century, by F. A. Budge, 187.
The Annual Monitor for 1899, 215.
The Interchange, a monthly, by Richard and Anna B. Thomas, 239.
Present-Day Papers by J. W. Rowntree and N. B. Binns, 247.
Report of Friends' Institute for Colored Youth, 329.
Report of Friends' Freedmen Association, 329. 331.
The new illustrated History of Westtown School, 351.
Books. On printing and publishing, 70.
Boone Ambrose. On the death of, when on a religious visit in Ohio, 263. 304.
Boy. Heroic fidelity in a, 4.
Remarks on the, who takes his father's place, 4.
Honesty and industry in a, rewarded, 22.
Remarks on a, considered "a hopeless case," 78.
Progress in studies made by a, in his spare moments, 90.
On making home entertaining to a, 108.
On the character of Roger Williams as a, 111.
A, loving his mother with all his strength, 163.
Presence of mind of a, in rescuing a man from great danger, 172.
A, taught one of the evils of reading dime novels, 175.
The honorable career of a neglected, now the Governor of Alaska, 230.
"Boys will be boys." Remarks on the right training of, entitled, 115.
Account of a, "on duty," 262.
Noble behavior of a, entitled "Give him a cheer," 284.
Remarks of a, suffering from a whipping, 332.
A, in business willing to start at the bottom, 356.
A manly and Christian, the most beautiful and noble thing in the world, 366.
Bread of different nations. On, 61.
Bread-and-butter Psalm. Extract entitled, The, 239.
Brethren in Christ. Decision of a recent conference of, against life insurance, suits at law, and instrumental music, 359.
Bric-a-brac. On the expensive folly of collecting, 220.
Brotherhood in Christ. Remarks on, 134.
Buddha. The Bible of, engraved on stone in Burma, 63.
Buddha. Anecdote of, 162.
Buds in autumn. The cheering promise contained in, 135.
Bull fights and bully fights. Remarks on, 231.
Buffaloes reared in Texas, 355.
Bunting, Jabez. Incident in the life of, 121.
Burrough, Edward. A sketch of the life and labors of, 58. 68. 74.
Business. On the large proportion of men who fail in, and comments, 338.
Special grace from on high needed in, 404.
Buzzard or dove. An infidel reproved, entitled, 7.

"Cast thy burden on the Lord," 239.
Cadbury Richard. Incident in the life of the late, 36.
Calendar. Curiosities of the Gregorian, 231.
California. A summer trip through picturesque, 84.
Candles. What is the religious value of? 136.
Cartland Joseph. Notice of the life and character of, 35.
Capital punishment. Plea for the abolition of, in Pennsylvania, 206.
Remarks on the above, 227.
Capital punishment. The wrongfulness of, determined by South Sea Islanders, 339.
Card playing. The safety of not knowing how to play cards, 161.
The dissipating and time-destroying habit of, 335.
Catacombs of Rome. Notice of the, 386.
Character. On promoting and preserving true, 93. 115.
The effect of social influence upon, 154.
The silent development of, 363.
determined by the manner of our spiritual growth, 13.
Best judged of, at home, 159.
Reputation as distinguished from, 179.
Remarks on a Christian, entitled "Wearing the garment," 317.
An unseen force in the making of, 355.
Choosing a calling. Remarks on, 106.
Charitable giving. Illustration of the pleasures of, 239.
Work in Odessa in collecting and utilizing refuse, 258.
Christ. The reciprocal dwelling of in the believer, and the believer in Christ, 2.
On the evidences of the spirit of, in the hearts of the ancient Chinese, etc., 10.
The presence of, in the heart cleanses it, 43.
On the testimony of Friends to the light of, in the heart, 74. 89.
On the necessity of maintaining true faith in, 78.
The experimental knowledge of, more to be desired than any thing else, 113.
The power of, when consistently shown in men's lives, 145.
It is the work of, to bring forth a likeness to Himself in every disciple, 177.
What think ye of, 187.
The presence of, to be found to-day in countless homes of the humble minded, 207.
On the sight of, by the prophet Isaiah and others, 209.
What scholars think of, in their scholarship alone carries no authority, 225.
On abiding in, 262.
On the blessedness of walking in the light of, 278.
If any man be in, he is a new creature, 294.
The modern imitation of, 369.
Not lonely with, 404.
Christian. The happy prospect of the humble dying, 2.
The rest and the labor of the, 10.
Christ, the authority of the, 29.
The, often trained by sorrow, 30.
The unity of the secular and the religious in the life of the, 67.
Faith, hope, and love must abide in the, 96.

150006

XUM

Christian. Peculiarity inevitable to the, 151.
On the perfecting of the, by chastening, 151.
Definition of a, 154.
The virtues of a, derived from Christ, 234.
Christians. Remark of Count Tolstoy on the significance of bodies of reforming, 143.
Christian work. The rule of, 154.
Activity can only be maintained by secret prayer, 316.
Christianity. Remarks on a noisy, superficial profession of, 41. 126. 157.
Humility, one of the fruits of, 57.
An unseen power of love and sympathy in, 62.
An eternal force in the world, 103. 143. 145.
Remarks on nominal, 105.
The blessed effects of, upon the world steadily increasing, 126.
The practicability of, 145.
Remarks on the power of, as influencing nations 145.
Is not the observance of Christmas opposed to? 166.
The claim of, 239.
Whoever would preach the, which crucifies must meet with opposition, 277.
An account of the spreading of, in Eastern countries in 1813, 309.
Christmas. Reasons why the day called, should not be observed, 166. 174.
On the unchristian observance of the day called, 174.
The observance of, disapproved by a Presbytery in Georgia, 359.
Child. The desirableness of the conditions of mind of an innocent, towards certain mysteries, 133.
The care of a, one of the most important of trusts, 331.
Child-study. Essays entitled, 273. 290. 307. 333. 356. 396.
Children. Are the, safe? 2.
Hints on the training of, 30.
Account of the caring for poor, in the "Junior Republic," New York, 54.
On influencing, to love work, 97.
On the honor due by, to their parents, 97.
Remarks on the wants of, entitled "The rich twins," 110.
On the danger of waiting for, to grow up, 110.
On the duties of, 157.
The duty of, to honor their parents, 163. 221.
The effects of home training early shown by, 222.
Our, as our judges, 269.
On training, in habits of punctuality, 284.
On caring for the neglected, in cities, etc., 353.
On the religious training of, 364.
Chinese. The evidences of Divine wisdom in the writings of the ancient, 10.
Gratitude Incident showing, 295.
Nervelessness said to distinguish the, from Europeans, 383.
China. Evidences of a new era in, 58.
On the recent change of rules in, 82.
On the little use of soap in, 270.
Declarations of substantial unity by Christian missionaries laboring in, 335.
Church. The life of the, must prosper not by men's might or money, but by the Lord's spirit, 9. 136.
The character of the ministers and ministry in the primitive, 101.
Remark on entertainment by the, 136. 143.
Remark on the, of the future, 142.
Comments on the needs of the, 143.
The value and service of woman in the, should be more generally recognized, 143.
One can be a member of the, and not of a, and vice versa, 225.
On the Lord's additions to the, 249.
Queries addressed to each member of a, 255.
The, a spiritual home, 271.
The, defined by George Fox, 281.
Remarks on contradictory and false utterances by professed ministers of the, 325.
A living, is a theocracy, 353.
A result of worldliness in a, 359.
Remaining in a, while hostile to its doctrines, dishonest, 359.
On receiving qualification for service in the, 369.
Immediate Divine revelation the rock upon which Christ would build his, 385.
Churches. The influence of Friends against formalism in the, 307.
The dangerous advance of ritualism in the, 308.
Explanations advanced of the cause of troubles in the, 335.
Cities. On a growing appreciation of life in the country, rather than in, 55.
City. Incident illustrating the temptations of a large, 389.
Civilization of the South Sea Islands. Essay entitled, 315. 327. 334. 339. 348. 386. 395. 403.
Climate. The summer, at Santa Barbara, Cal., 43.
Clive Lord. The miserable end of, following a military career, 78.
Clock in the City Hall, Phila. Notice of the, 89.
Closed doors. Extract entitled, 133.
Coke. Judge Edward. Anecdote of, 111.
Colton. Dr. C. Q. Notice of the use by, of nitrous oxide, in extracting teeth, 395.
Communion with God. On 90. 173.
On the views of Friends in regard to, 142.
Company for the aged. On providing congenial, 51.
Comrades of the Quiet Hour. The, a band of daily silent worshippers, 249.
Congress of religion in New York State. Notice of a proposed, 103.
Conversation. On not making the vices of men a subject of 12.
Conversion to the core. On, by T. L. Cuyler, 245.
Contentment On cultivating the spirit of, 268.
Remarkable in a blind man, 303.
Counsels for the times. Advices of London Yearly Meeting entitled, 131.
Courage. Moral, springs from the doing of duty, 13
Courageous. To be, is to be also thoughtful and prudent, 183.
Covetous. The poor may be, as well as the rich, 202. 263.
Cresson Sarah. Instructive remarks of, 421.
Cross of Christ. The practical effects of the, in daily life, 245.
Cruel kick. Incident illustrating Christian love entitled, A, 298.
Crewdson Isaac. Remarks on the unsound doctrines and career of, 349. 354.
Cuba. On the need of and plans for industrial relief in, 195.
Remarks of Roman Catholics on the need of moral reformation in, 207.
The name of "Jesus Christ" has been a name to extort money by, in, 345.
Culture. Remarks on the dangers to Quakerism attending the too earnest pursuit of, 297.
Is apt to destroy plain common sense and clearness of vision, 347.
On dangers which beset women of, 403.
Cuyler Theodore S. Anecdotes related by, 375.
Cyprus. Account of the island of, 121.
Czar's proposal. Essay entitled, The 75.

Damascus. Account of a recent visit to, 398.
David, the Tamil evangelist, Account of, 182.
Day of small things" Extract entitled "The, 46. 106.
Day's outing. Essay entitled, A, 15.
Dead Sea. A steamboat plying on the, and the Jordan, 369.
Dean Ellwood. Letter of, to one in affliction, 238.
Developed photographs and developed characters, 363.
Death. On the hastening of, by improper habits, 77.
The blessedness of being always ready for, 175. 282.
penalty. Plea for the abolition of, in Pennsylvania, 206.
Remarks on the above 227.
Deaths.—Rachel L. Atkinson, 200; Sarah D Allen, 240; L. Caroline Ash, 368; Martha C. Barton, 40; Jesse Bailey, 48; John Bundy, 112; Elenor C. Brooks, 224; Edith F. Barker, 240; Jarvis H. Bartlett, 296; Talitha Anna Briggs, 368; Joseph Cowgill, 8; Hannah Child, 8; Jane Cronk, 16; Rachel Cope, 32; Elizabeth Canby, 56; Ruth A. Crandall, 111; Mary H. Cooke, 120; Sarah S. Carpenter, 176; Edith Collins, 208; Mary Morris Cox, 216; Mary J. Carey, 234; Sarah E. Cooper, 264; Israel Cope, 280; Lydia Cope, 288; Joshua Coppock, 304; Anna B. Cornwell, 320; Abraham Cowgill, 408; Edward G. Dillingham, 232; Rachel Ann Doudna, 376; David Evans, 48; Ora E. Emmons, 88; Anna Emmons, 120; Margaretta Elliott, 120; Theodore E. Elder, 216; Mary S. Edge, 216; Anna V. Edge, 224; Sophia Embree, 248; Mary Esterbrook, 304; David Eldridge, 328; Mary Eldridge, 328; Joseph Fawcett, 280; George S. Garrett, 234; Charles P. Hall, 8; Clarkson Hodgin, 16; Hannah C. Haworth, 24; Matilda Hodgson, 24; Mary E. Harvey, 40; Benjamin Hoopes, 48; Joshua L. Harmer, 64; Parker Hall, 80; Charles I. Hayes, 120; Sabina Hancock, 224; Susan W. Heacock, 224; Martha J. Hall, 234; Rebecca Neill Heald, 280; Mary Hampton, 280; Oliver Hampton, 280; Sabina Hiatt, 288; Anna P. Henderson, 288; Ruth Hobson, 320; Jesse D. Hockett, 328; Joseph Hall, 336; Martha E. Hall, 376; Martha B. Hancock, 392; Samuel Heacock, 408; Mary E. Jones, 64; Rachel Johnson, 234; Texanna B. Jordan, 280; Penninah Jordan, 280; Hannah E. Kaighn, 280; Amelia R Leeds, 24; Allen T. Lee, 272; Josiah Lippincott, 344; Cornelia B. Leonard, 376; Lydia Miller, 24; Samuel L. Moore, 32; Amy Middleton, 40; Joseph Morris, 104; Margaretta J. Mercer, 248; Francis W. Moore, 368; Ruth Newlin, 64; John H. Peele, 280; Loucilla R. H. Quatman, 344. 359; Martha Cresson Roberts, 40; Harmon Rhodes, 104; Mary H. Roberts, 304; Rebecca H. Roberts, 416; Hubert Rockwell, 384; Isaac Roberts, 392; Edward Smedley, 24; Benjamin Stanton, 64; Alexander Scott, 160; Howard A. Stanton, 184; Lewis Sharpless, 216; Charles Stokes, 256; William Shaw, 272; Dinah Shannon, 288; Edith R. Starbuck, 408; Stephen M. Trimble, 136; Henry Trimble, 136; Mary H. Todd, 280; John Thomas, 312; Mary F. Venable, 176; Eli Vernon, 176; Charlotte Wistar, 88; Charles L. Warner, 152; Anna Waring, 176; Benjamin K. Wetherill, 256; Mary E. Windle, 288; Eliza Ann Walker, 320; Samuel Walton, 344; Hannah Wilkins, 392; Ann Wilson, 392; Hannah Yerkes, 208; Sarah T. Zook, 208.
Died when away from home on Truth's service. Essay entitled, 263.
Dignity of the Divine mark in man. Remarks of John Milton on the, 118.
Dillingham Edward G. Remarks on the death of, 185. 210.
Display of religious life. On the, 126.
Ditzler William U. Memorial of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia for the Western District concerning, 29. 39. 43.
Remarks on the above, 295.
Incident illustrating the concern of, for the Truth, 337.
Divine guidance. Testimony of Sir Matthew Hale to the reality of, 3.
Grace can not be given by parents to their children, 89.
On a growth in, 369.
Discipline. On the history and origin of the institution of the, among Friends, 219. 227. 235. 246. 251.
Do everything well. Extract entitled, 325.
Doctrinal test for laity and clergy in Old South Church, Boston, 375.
Doing as well as one knows how. On, 316.
Don't complain. Extract entitled, 108.
Don't let go the anchor. Essay entitled, 78.
Dress. Testimony of Mary Fletcher, a Methodist preacher, to plainness of, 31.
Remarks on plainness of, entitled "Why wear this uniform"? 36.
Remarks of The Episcopal Recorder upon a growing disregard of plainness of, among religious professors, 39.
Plainness of advocated because belonging to Christianity, 58.
Appeal of Adoniram Judson to Christian women against ornamental and costly, 277. 283.
Remarks of Job Scott against judging in regard to, in a censorious spirit, 294.
Illiberal liberalism in relation to, 345.
Drinker Elizabeth. Notice of the ministry of, 61.
Driving through narrow places On respecting the rights of others entitled, 284.
Drudgery. The importance of, 111.
Drummond Henry. Remarks of, on the importance of love, 185.
Dudley Mary. Remarkable power accompanying the ministry of 28.
Duties of children and parents, 157.
Duty. Essay entitled, 319.
Dukhobortsi. Late information respecting the, 14. 38. 42. 60. 79. 87. 95. 111. 117. 139. 171. 217. 252. 295.
Appeal from the Meeting for Sufferings in Philadelphia on behalf of the, 20.
Remarks on the above, 33.
Letter of John Bellows respecting the proposed emigration of to Cyprus, 42.
Letter of a committee of Friends in England, to the, in Cyprus, 79.
Letters from Cyprus respecting the, 87. 139. 171. 202. 204. 210. 267. 295. 319. 335. 346.

Dukhobortsi. On the proposed emigration of, to Canada, 95. 171. 203. 217. 322.
Notice of the recent life and exile of the, 117. 125. 130. 141. 204. 291.
Efforts of Friends in two Monthly Meetings in aid of the, 119.
Account of Cyprus the present home of exiled, 121.
What is the creed of the? 137.
Notice of the Tolstoy fund in aid of the, 138.
Notice of a conference in aid of the, 139.
Friends under a concern to meet the, arriving at Halifax, 200. 216, 217. 225. 252. 257. 343.
Notice of the arrival of a vessel load of, at Halifax, 217. 252. 291.
Account of Prince Hilkoff, one of the, 217.
The recent landing of, in America, an historic advent, 225. 271.
The, not Quakers, 225.
Remarks of The York Times on the exertions of English Friends for the, 239.
Reception of the, arriving at Winnipeg, 252.
On the earlier history of the, 261.
Account of the, exiles in Siberia, 267.
in Manitoba. Account of the, 291. 295. 299. 306. 351. 371. 393.
Notice of appeal to the Czar of Russia by Friends on behalf of the, 313.
Notice of the removal of the, from Cyprus to Canada, 335 346. 357. 371.
An account of the arrival of the third ship load of, in Canada, 357.
Notice of the fourth ship load of, arriving in Canada, 375. 378.
Account of a visit to the, in Manitoba, by Jos. S. Elkinton and Wm. Evans, 391. 393. 406. 412.
Earthly versus heavenly treasure, 2.
Easter. The observance of, disapproved of by a Presbytery in Georgia, 359.
Eddystone lighthouse. Account of Winstanley the builder of the first, 299.
Education. On the importance of instilling a love of truth in, 81.
An, which does not give moral courage, a failure, 142.
in agriculture. A plea for, in Friends' schools, 300.
Educational Association. Notice of a recent meeting of the National, 19.
terms. On truthfulness in, 82.
Educators. Notice of a proposed Conference of, at Providence, R. I., 384.
Educational Conference. Notice of the proceedings of the Friends' sixth, held at Providence, R. I., 415.
Editorial —The Lord not in the fire, 1; Blessing the means, 9; The way open, 9; Whence is wisdom, 10; The truce of God, 17; On making terms of peace with Spain, 17; The Monthly Meeting clerk, 25; Retrograde spirituality, 25; A Friends' share in mercy, 33; Christian martyrs of the Caucasus, 33; Co-operative Shepherding, 33; The Christian Commission, 41; Testimony by countenance, 41; Remarks on taking life by "due process of law," 42; "Multum in Parvo," 49; Smaller bodies and greater principles, 57; Vacation retrospects, 65; Notice of "Wayside Rhymes," by Mahlon Oliphant, 66; Keeping a meeting open alone, 73. 129; On the proposed federation of the Anglo-Saxon race, 81; Truth in education, 81; Remarks on the ministry, 89; On the inshining of the light of Christ, 89; Notice of the testimony of Friends against war, 89; Mention of the great clock in the City Hall, Philadelphia, 89; Influencing children to love work, 97; Honor to the honorable, 97; The flag and the cross, 105; Real and constructive calls, 105; On memorial and fellowship communion, 113; Notice of a remark on the acceptance by other religious denominations of some of the views of Friends, 121; On the results of war, 121; Cyprus, 121; On a supposed meritorious inaction in religion, 129; Religion is concerned with our every day business, 129; On "principles not men," 129; Remarks on the life of Philip Schaff, 129; Notice of a letter of Alexander I. of Russia, in favor of peace, 137; The budding of the harvest, 137; What is the creed of the Dukhobortsi? 137; Notice of the Tolstoy fund in aid of the Dukhobortsi, 138; Notice of the proceedings of a conference in aid of the Dukhobortsi, 139; Appeal on behalf of sufferers on the Sea Islands, S. C., 139; Sympathy, 145; The practicability of Christianity, 145; The new power, 145; Former liberality of Friends, 153; Is our trusteeship lapsing? 153; Ministry after Meeting, 153. 161. 177; Remarks in reference to libraries, 161; Remarks on so-called peace jubilee, 161; The safety of not knowing how to play cards, 161, 162; Clock-work ministry, 169; A thoughtful visitor, 177; Prayer by dictation, 177; A running comment, 185. 210; Our meeting houses as debtors to the public, 201; On the sight of the Saviour of men by the prophet Isaiah and others, 209; Expressions of sympathy with the editor of The American Friend in bereavement, 209; In non-essentials, loyalty, 209; Why should life fear death? 217; On a perversion of the text, "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty," 217; Remarks on individual faithfulness, 217; The arrival of the Dukhobors in Canada, 217; What scholars, in the wisdom of their scholarship only think of Christ, carries no authority, 225; The landing of the Dukhobors in America, an historic event, 225; The Dukhobors not Quakers, 225; "What is the matter with modern preaching?" 225; A dawning light on oaths, 233; On loyalty to our religious Society, 241; On a christianity without Christ, 241; On a danger that civil and religious liberty may perish with the sword, 241; On worship in spirit and in truth, 241. 249; The Lord's addition to the church, 249; Remarks on the Dukhobors entitled "Ye visited me," 257; Isolated and independently convinced Friends, 257; San José Friends again in membership, 257; Notice of statistics of Roman Catholics and Protestants in the United States, 265; Remarks on the salary of ministers, 265; On root principles of Romanism, Protestantism and Quakerism, 265; Do we preach from a text or from Christ? 273; Obstructions to marriage among Friends through luxurious living, 287; On contending for Truth in the right spirit, 289; The first editorial in THE FRIEND, issued Tenth Month 13, 1827, 305; Our competition with others is in the Holy Spirit only, 305; Remarks on sound views of Leo Tolstoy and others lately published in THE FRIEND, 306; Notice of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 313. 321; Prophets of action, 329; Visits to Jersey Shore meetings, 337; Remarks on the declaration of Jesus Christ, "Because I go unto the Father," 345; Remarks on laboring among the heathen entitled, "From the known to the unknown," 345; On the effects of war, entitled, "The suicide of homicide," 345; On criticism of the plain dress, entitled Illiberal Liberalism, 345; "Fossils" in our religious Society are those who live in the principles from which our early Friends came out, 353; Is our church government a democracy? 353; The open door for progressive revelations, 361; Remarks on growth in grace, 369; The modern imitation of Christ, 369; Comments on the Centennial of Westtown school, 377; Revelation to have the precedence, 385; Notice to correspondents, 393; Not yours but you, 401; Remarks on Christ as the Word of God, 409; A brief review of Friends' doctrines, 409.
Egypt; its history and civilization. On, 21. 27. 37. 45. 53.
On the railroad from, into the desert, 87.
Remarks on late massacres by English troops in the Soudan, 150.
The moral maxims of ancient, 231.
Elkinton Joseph S. Account by, of the arrival of Dukhobortsi in Canada, 357.
Emerson. Extract from, 103.
Enjoyment of good things is often increased by sharing them with others, 189.
England. Comments on the unchristian and vindictive spirit shown by, in reference to the war in the Soudan, 150.
The farmer's visit to the Queen of, 228.
The church of. On the storm in the, caused by Ritualism, 59. 136.
The doctrine respecting the sacrament contained in the prayer book of, 159.
On the rapid progress towards Roman Catholicism in, 181.
Remarks on political methods in episcopal elections of the, 231.
Contest in the, between Catholicism and Protestantism, 325.
The position to-day of three parties in the, 375.
Estaugh John and Elizabeth. Brief notice of, 197.
Evans Henry, a negro preacher. A remarkable instrument in the Divine hand, 331.
Evans Lucy Ann, of Tuckerton, N. J. A prophecy of, remarkably fulfilled, 337.
Evans William. Remarks of, on the peculiar service of the Society of Friends, 291.
Testimony of, that the principles of Friends are yet to spread over the world, 293.
Encouraging communication by, to Friends, 380.
Thomas. Incident in the ministry of, 382.
Evil. The fruits of, may last a life time, 14.
Evil speaking. Watchfulness against, a proof of growth in grace, 119.

"Facilis descendus." Remarks on, 188.
Family life present many opportunities for the exercise of virtue, 286.
Farmer's visit to the Queen of England. The, 228.
Fashion. The extravagance of, 175.
Fiction. An effect of, 247.
Figure 3. Some remarkable peculiarities of the, 151.
Filling present limits. Extract entitled, 322.
Firing at one spot. Remarks on temptation entitled, 213.
First day of the week. A newspaper published on the, discontinued in London, 359. 375.
Fisher John of Youghal. Account of the last illness of, 411.
Flattering titles. Objections to giving, 97.
Flower Russell P. Remarks of, on giving away one-tenth of his income, 375.
Fletcher Mary, a Methodist preacher. Testimony of, to plainness of dress, 31.
Foods as remedies, 266.
Forgetfulness of God. Essay entitled, 158.
Fox George. On the cleansing of the heart of, by Jesus Christ, 289.
Notice of the parentage and early life of, 389.
On the early exercises of, in the ministry, 402. 412.
Fox Maria S. Experience and observations of, on exercises in the ministry, 215.
Forgive. Learn how to, 374.
Forgiveness. Incident illustrating, 34.
Free Methodists. Rules of, respecting plain buildings for meeting houses, 167.
Freedom of choice between good and evil given to the soul of man, 114.
Frets over nothing. Extract entitled, 108.
France. Incident of the Reign of Terror in, and comments, 354.
French flower girl. Account of an insane person entitled, The, 380.
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 5. 27. 45. 78. 106, 107. 158. 175. 214. 247. 265. 278. 294.
On the state of the Society of, 1. 11. 17. 25. 55. 65. 67. 79. 95. 158. 183. 187. 202. 214, 215. 218. 223. 239. 247. 251. 263. 274. 279. 295. 370. 399.
Prophetic declarations respecting innovations upon the doctrines of, 1.
On the doctrines of, respecting the ministry, 5. 65. 89. 105. 147. 162. 169. 177. 273.
On the refreshing character of the meetings for worship of, 7.
Addendum to an article entitled "The decline of Friends in Barbadoes," 11.
On the views of, in the regard to worship, 13. 73. 100. 153. 216. 273. 319.
The efforts of the pastoral system on, 17, 183, 202.
Appeal of, in Philadelphia on behalf of the Dukhobortsi, 20.
Remarks of Samuel Scott on consistently maintaining the doctrines and testimonies of, 23.
The office of a clerk in the meetings for discipline of, 25.
On the inconsistency of the pastoral system with the doctrines of, 33. 187. 249.
Notice of the history of the government of Pennsylvania by, 34. 50.
Correction of a statement in The Daily Chronicle of London, respecting, of Philadelphia, 39.
The necessity of the maintenance of the views of, in regard to worship, 47. 241.
Remarks on the character and teaching of the early, 58. 68. 74.
On plainness of dress advocated by, a fruit of Christianity, 58. 151.
Notice of impressions produced upon others by inconsistency among professing, 65. 79.
Account of, at Jericho, Indiana, 67.
Remarks on marriage among, 69, 287.
Notice of the first meeting of Burlington and Bucks Quarterly Meeting of, 71.
Testimony of the early, to the light of Christ in the heart, 74.
Certificate of removal given by, for Jeremiah Langhorne, 77.
An acknowledgment to, by a member in 1689, 77.
The concern of, to bear witness to the Truth, has led to the bearing of distinguishing testimonies, 81.

Friends. Historical notes on the meeting of, at Lynn, Mass., 90. 95.
Publications of, relating to war and peace to be had at 304 Arch Street, Philadelphia, 95.
Objections of, to giving flattering titles to men, 97.
On the doctrine of, respecting the communion, 113, 343.
Remarks on the "Beacon" movement among, in England in 1836, 115.
The views of, accepted by other denominations, 121.
Notice of a new meeting-house for, in Washington, D. C., 127. 263.
An advantage to, of an unpaid ministry, 128.
Advices of London Yearly Meeting to, against diversions, music, dancing, etc., 131.
Objections to the reading of the Holy Scriptures in the meetings of, 143.
The influence of the use of the plain language by, 143.
On charitable giving by, 143.
Notice of liberality of, in America in 1801, to Friends in Great Britain and Ireland, 153.
The doctrines of, must be exemplified by the, of to-day, in order to gather others to them, 153.
Remarks on ministry after meeting, by, 153. 161. 177.
Notice of public meetings appointed to be held by Chester Monthly Meeting of, 159. 183.
On the value to the Society of, of those who have been added to it by convincement, 163. 257.
Remarks of John Barclay on the benefit to be derived from reading the journals of deceased, 166.
once noted for their lofty standard of honor, 166.
in Holland and the Warder school, 173. 196.
Statistics of the number of members of the Society of, in Australia, 175.
The need of a faithful testimony by, against war, 177.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Twelfth Month 15, 1898, 183.
Notice of ministering, who have died abroad, 197, 263.
A visit to the Fritchley, 198.
Statistics of membership of different Yearly Meetings, 200. 207.
Remarks on the care necessary in locating the meeting houses of, 201.
Letter of the representative body of Kansas Yearly Meeting of, to the Czar of Russia, 205.
The necessity of loyalty to the principles of the Society of, by its members, 209.
Remarks on the present condition of the Society of, 214.
Letter to a persecutor of, from his mother, 215.
On the origin and history of the institution of the rules of discipline among, 219. 227. 235. 246. 251.
Ministers among, follow trades and professions as other people, 223.
Statistics of membership in the Western District Monthly Meeting of, Philadelphia, 224.
Notice of the Testimony of the Society of, in America, in 1830, 227.
Remarks on the testimony of, against oaths, 233.
Notice of a meeting of, at Merchantville N. J., 239.
Remarks on the first concern of, 247.
On receiving members into the Society of, 249.
On isolated and independently convinced, 257.
Notice of the struggle of, in Norway and Denmark against war, 258.
On the privileges and duties of young, by Paul D. L. Maier, 258.
In reference to a revival of the once favored condition of the Society of, 261.
On root principles of the Society of, 265.
The present day service of the Society of, 265.
Remarks on disturbances caused by Geo. Keith among in 1692, 267.
Remarks of Samuel Scott in a meeting for discipline of, 271.
An objection of, to Bible schools, 273.
Remarks on "The New Quakerism" as distinguished from that of early, 274.
The spiritual equality of men and women in the Society of, 281.
The zeal of the early, in the attendance of meetings for worship, 287.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Third Month 16, 1899, 288.
The need of, to maintain the Truth in Truth's spirit, 289.
Friends were raised up to bear testimony to the grace which enlightens every man, 291.
Caution to, to enter into feeling with those they need to advise, 292.
The principles and testimonies of, yet to spread over the whole earth, 293.
Account of the convincement of a sailor of the principles of, 294.
The interest of young, in our religious Society, 297.
The strength of the Society of, depends on its obedience to the Holy Spirit, 305.
A word of hope to burden bearers among, 306.
The influence of, against formalism in the churches, 307.
The importance of the attendance by, of their mid-week meetings, 311.
Remarks of an honest enquirer upon the principles of, 311.
Notice of a visit of the Czar of Russia in 1712 to a meeting of, 318.
Remarks on the principles of, by one received into membership with, 320.
Notice of Nantmeal Meeting House belonging to, in 1855, 325.
Remarks on, as bearing testimonies to future generations, 329.
Notice of Philadelphia Quarterly Meeting of, held Fifth Month 1, 1899, 335.
The establishment of a meeting of, at Tuckerton, N. J., through the faithfulness of Edward Andrews, and interesting particulars concerning it, 337.
An appeal from some popular diversions to the witness of the Spirit, issued by the overseers of Western District Monthly Meeting of, 342.
Notice of proceedings of Abington Quarterly Meeting of, held Fifth Month 4, 1899, 343.
Account of the "Beacon controversy" in the Society of, 349. 354. 362.
On the difference between, and other religious bodies, 351.
Notice of Concord Quarterly Meeting of, held Fifth Month 8, 1899, 351.
The Society of, is in principle a theocracy, 353.
A document of, on peace, criticised by a Roman Catholic priest, 359.
On the place and service of the Holy Scriptures as held by, 361.
A service of, in 1748, to the Plenipotentiaries at Aix-la-Chapelle, 362.
Account of the efforts of, to abolish slavery in this country, 372. 379. 387. 405. 413.
The need of consistency to principle by, during vacations, 375.
Notice of a meeting of, in 1868, held at Fourth and Arch Streets Philadelphia, 382.
Immediate Divine revelation the foundation principle of, 385.
Address of the Meeting for sufferings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of, to the American Commissioners at The Hague, and reply, 387.
Gleanings in the early history of, 389. 402. 412.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Sixth Month 15, 1899, 391.
The principles of, gaining in the world, 405.
A brief review of the doctrines of, 409.
Friends Freedmen Association, 36th Annual Report of, 332.
Friends' Library. Notice of the times of opening, 207.
Friendly Association for regaining peace with the Indians in Pennsylvania, in 1755. The, 237. 242. 254. 261.
Fritchley and its Friends. An account of a visit to, 198.
Funerals. Flowers at, prohibited by a Roman Catholic bishop, 271.
Future. A, for the foundation of our past, 405.

Gambling. On progressive euchre and other forms of, 260.
Progressive euchre declared by a judge in Kentucky to be, 343.
Gauntt family of Little Egg Harbor, N. J. Notice of the, 337.
George Junior Republic. Account of the, 54.
Remarks of "citizens" of the, on Friends, 263.
Gifford, Phebe R. Notice of, 399.
Gifts and givers as God loves. Extract entitled, Such, 236.
Girl. Preservation of a, in imminent danger, 150.
Remarks on the, who takes mother's place, 159.
A generous little, 173.
The, of years ago, 180.
Girl. Trust of a little, in God, 218.
The power of a, entitled "A gentle hand," 314.
Girls. A word of advice to, in the country, 3.
On the importance to, of knowing some useful business, 83.
The valuable service performed by, in homely duties, 116.
"Give him a cheer." Noble behavior of a boy entitled, 284.
Giver and the gift. On the danger of forgetting our Heavenly Father entitled, The, 89.
Glorying in tribulation. On, 75.
Good old times." Extract entitled, "The, 322.
Gold coins. On the "sweating" of, 214.
Good in bad people. Extract entitled, 286.
Good work or none. Incident of a workman entitled, 221.
"Good, but not pleasant to live with." Extract entitled, 226.
Gospel. The transformation of the natural disposition through the, 211.
Grace. Who can say? 225.
Grant, General U. S. Remarks on the religious side of, 62.
Graphophone. Notice of a powerful, 327.
Grellet, Stephen. First experience of, in silent worship, 100.
Growing too cool. Remarks on, 299.
Grumble box. Extract entitled, The, 202.

Habits. Illustration of the pernicious effects of bad, 20.
Haddon, Elizabeth. Brief reference to, at the age of eighteen, 281.
Hague, The. International conference. Notices of Address of Friends to the American Commissioners at, and their reply, 387.
Resolution of the Fifth Late Mohonk Conference to the American Commissioners at, 387.
Address of the New York Bar association respecting the conference at the, 394.
Hale, Sir Matthew. Testimony of, to the reality of Divine guidance, 3.
Happiness is to be found within, 205.
Harvard College. Remarks of a professor of, against the late war, 91.
Haverford College. Notice of the present large attendance at, 95.
Notice of the sixty-fifth anniversary of the founding of, 111.
Hawaii. The value of education highly appreciated in, 287.
Complimentary titles ignored by domestic servants in, 335.
Having a form. Remarks on worship entitled, 314.
Health. Violation of the laws of, shortens life, 77.
Mental labor, when moderate, conducive to, 79.
Remarks on "mouth germs," in connection with, 93.
On the need of Christian workers to care for their, 158.
On the origin of lock jaw, 172.
A person with clothing ablaze to be put in a horizontal position, 172.
Hints from the Dansville Sanitarium, New York, respecting, 211.
Ill temper and discontent caused by tight lacing, 214.
Simple home remedies for the recovery of, 220.
On the effect upon, of different foods, 266.
Importance to, of the proper care of shoes, 317.
Improved, of the community during the last 100 years, 322.
Heathen names for days and months. Reasons for the disuse of, by Friends, 410.
Heroism of a guide in Switzerland, 154.
Heart's convincement. Essay entitled, The, 106.
Heart power better than head power, 317.
Heathenism. Observations on real, 102.
Helping children to pray. Extract entitled, 5. grandma. Extract entitled, 237.
Hemp. On Manila, 157.
Heredity. Remarks on, 130.
Hero. A true, 237.
Heroism. On secret and invisible, 234.
Hilkoff, Prince Account of, 217. 261.
Letters of, respecting the needs of the Dukhobortsi in Canada, 299. 351.
Historical notes on Lynn Meeting (Mass.), 90.
History of a ruined life. A, 100.
History of nations. The designs of the Almighty fulfilled in, 373.
Hog. Stiff bristles of the, come from Russia, 327.
Holiness. On personal experience of, 172.

Holy Scriptures. On the effects of the, upon a nation's literature, 14.
The, are proof against all unsanctified learning, 14.
Christ and not the, the foundation of Christianity, 25.
The, were written both from inspiration and experience, 36.
Notice of the distribution of the, among Spanish prisoners, 47.
Remarks on the, entitled "Knowing the author," 60.
On the reason why the authorship of the, is disputed by certain critics, 84.
Encouraging incident in reference to the distribution of, in Spain, 150.
Apostates may have the words of, but not the life, 154.
Directed to be read at Harvard College, to assist in the cultivation of a literary style. 175.
On the history of the late Revised Version of the, 178.
On memorizing passages from the, 207. 255.
The earliest lists of New Testament books, 222. 229.
The, subordinate to the Holy Spirit from which they came, 226. 322. 361.
A large circulation of the, among natives of Uganda, 255.
To be rightly understood only through the Holy Spirit, 268. 311. 322.
Extracts from a recent version of the Psalms, 269.
Notice of many translations of the, 271.
Testimony of Isaac Penington respecting the inventions of man in connection with the, 322.
Confirmation of, by Assyrian monuments, 323. 330.
Unscriptural declaration of Methodists concerning the, 335.
The, made the instrument of the conversion of a Russian nobleman, 341.
Jesus Christ called the, a word of God, but himself the Word of God, 343.
The Revised Version of the, sanctioned for use in the Church of England, 359.
On "higher criticism," in connection with the, 361.
On the spread of, in Italy in recent years, 366.
The predictions of, in reference to Tyre, and their fulfilment, 379.
Remarkable preservation of a Burmese translation of, the New Testament, 381.
Remarks on the as a literary marvel. 410.
The, were lived before they were written, 411.
Holy Spirit. On the offices of the, 63.
A baptism of the, the great need of religious bodies, 136.
Christians commanded to be filled with the, 154. 276.
The need of the, everywhere, and at all times, 370.
Honesty and industry. The value of, illustrated in a boy's experience, 22.
Home. The importance of making friends at, 210.
Honest man. Remark of an, 385.
Honor. On rendering, to the honorable, 97.
Honor thy father and thy mother. Extract entitled, 163.
Hopeless case." Remarks on a boy considered "A, 78.
Hospitality as a discipline, 276.
Houses. Notice of the largest, in the world, 116.
How mastership comes, 47.
How a Nebraska settlement was captured. Extract entitled, 251.
How to overcome environment, 372.
Housekeeping and homemaking. On the distinction between, 199.
Horse. How to cure a, from kicking, 202.
Hull, Henry. On the death of, when on a religious visit in Ohio, 263.
Humility. On, 20. 41. 57. 351.
Illustration of the truth that before honor is, 121.
Hungry for a hand shake. Extract entitled, 14.
Hunt, Ann. The effects of loving others exemplified in the life of, 247.
Husband and wife. The mutual efforts of, should be to elevate and refine, 195.

India. Notice of the labors of David, the Tamil evangelist, in, 182.
India. Silence in worship enjoined by the Gotamists in, 191.
Indians. Defects in the administration of officials in treating the, 157.
Notice of the Friendly Association in Pennsylvania for regaining peace with the, in 1755, 237. 242. 254. 261.
Individual accountability. Essay entitled, 278.
Infidel. A vulgar, reproved, 7.
An, discomfited by an old woman, 14.
The views of an, changed when in danger of drowning, 156.
Infidelity. Remarks of Vicesimus Knox on, 212.
Influence. On the, of each individual, 47.
Insane in Syria. Appeal on behalf of T. Waldemeir's hospital for the, 367.
Intemperance. Incident in the life of John B. Gough, 19.
Bitter reflections upon her parents by a young woman given to, 77.
History of the life of an Australian shepherd ruined by, 100.
The cost of, in four months, in the United States twice as much as that of the war with Spain, 122.
Statements in reference to the deadly effects of, 231.
Remarks on the effects of, entitled Unkept promises, 244.
A husband reclaimed from, by his wife, 293.
Items concerning the Society, 55. 71. 79. 95. 103. 111. 119. 127. 135. 143. 159. 166. 175. 183. 200. 247. 263. 271. 279. 287. 295. 335. 343. 351. 359. 367. 375. 383. 391. 399. 415.
Italy. On the spread of the Holy Scriptures in, during recent years, 366.

Japan. The high position of women in ancient, 303.
Japanese. Testimony of a young, on faith and trust in God, 218.
Jericho (Indiana). As it was and as it is, by William Robinson, 67.
Jess going to. Remarks on procrastination entitled, 250.
Jew. Account of Joseph Rabbinowitz, a converted, 11.
Remark of Haym Solomon, a patriotic, and comments, 241.
Jews. Account of the spread of Christianity among, in 1813, 309.
Assyrian monuments confirming the history of the captivity, etc., of the, 323. 330.
An investigation by influential, decides in favor of Jesus of Nazareth, 335.
The designs of Providence in the history of the, 373.
Johnson, Samuel, the lexicographer. Anecdote of, when a boy, 163.
Jones, Eli and Sybil. Anecdote of, 9.
Jordan, Richard. The watchful care of, not to proceed unduly in the exercise of the ministry, 47.
Journals. Remarks on dangerous, in the United States, 62.
Judson, Adoniram. On life and character of, as a missionary in Burmah, 180. 189. 194.
Remarks on the above, 218.
Letter of, to Christian women on ornamental and costly attire, 277. 283.
Comments on the above, 306.
Junior Republic in Tompkins County, New York. Account of the, 54.
Observations of "citizens" of, on Friends, 263.

Keeley motor. Considerations suggested by the, 145.
Keeping the head covered in court. Remarks on an incident connected with, 207.
Kindness illustrated, 19. 135. 314.
The good effect of, upon a tramp, 271.
to animals, 314.
Kind words. On the helpful effect of, 192.
Kingdom of God. On the, 63.
Essay entitled. The, 223.
Kingdom founded on righteousness. Essay entitled, A, 373.
Kirk, Isaiah and Elizabeth R. Brief notice of, 325.
Knox Vicesimus. On the character and writings of, 212. 230. 238. 243. 253.
Remarks on the above, 306.
Kosmos. Essay entitled, 63.

Lake Mohonk Conference on arbitration. Notice of proceedings of, 12. 374.
Platform of the Fifth Annual, 390.
Lamb Charles. Extract from a letter of, to Robert Lloyd, 187.
Langhorne Thomas. Loving certificate of removal for, issued by Friends in England, 77.
Language. The influence of the use of the plain, by Friends, 143.
The reason for the use of the plain, by Friends, 410.
League for Social Service. On the establishment and object of the, 98.
Lean William S. Comments of the British Friend on the resignation by, of his membership with Friends, 343.
Letter. A, to the poet Tennyson from his mother, 93.
Extracts from a, to a Friend, 163.
from James Bean respecting Friends at San José, 166. of Rufus M. Jones in reference to the above, 183.
of D. Hilkoff respecting the Dukhobortsi in Canada, 299.
Joseph S. Elkinton accompanying the above, 299.
Stephen Grellet respecting Geo. W. Reed, 383. from Dukhobors to Jos. S. Elkinton and William Evans, 406. 412.
Letters of Argyri Climi, 59.
Eugene Smets, a converted Roman Catholic, 123.
Margaret Player to her son, a persecutor of Friends in 1670, 215.
Ellwood Dean to one in affliction, 238.
Robert Milhous, 332. 340. 347. 365. 370. 406.
of D. Hillkoff, 351. 371. of William Evans respecting the Dukhobortsi in Canada, 378. 391. 393. 406. from travellers in the Orient, 381. 398.
Incident illustrating the temptations of a large city, entitled, Two, 389.
Libraries. Remarks on shelves for books in, 161.
Life. The real winner in the struggle of, 2.
On the dangers attending men in public, 3.
The disquiet of a, not in accord with God's witness in the heart, 119.
Extract entitled. A purchased, 354.
Lincoln Abraham. On liberty as the heritage of all men, 359.
Lindley Hannah. Remarks of, on formal visiting, 45.
Literature. Remarks on high, 124.
Livingstone David. The conferring of an honorary upon, 31.
Little ways of bettering the world, 148.
Lost, a boy, 365.
Love. Those who give, freely to others, are never uncared for, nor unloved, 247.
Illustration of the conquering power of patient, 298.
Lynch law discouraged in Georgia. Remarks on 42.
Lyon Mary. On the influence for good of, 355.

Madagascar. War on Christian principles in, 244.
Making things clear and plain. On, 190.
Mallets and chisels. Remarks on perfecting the Christian, entitled, 151.
Man who can carry a message to Garcia. Extract entitled. The, 365. overboard. A failure of infidelity, entitled, 156.
Mankind are brothers, 25.
are constantly building their own characters, 31.
Manna, as found in the desert. Notice of, 340.
Margery's mistake. Extract entitled, 109.
Marriage. Remarks on the solemnity and mutual obligations of, 69.
National decline occasioned by obstructions to, 287.
Extravagance in living a serious bar to, in the middle classes, 343.
Marriages.—George A. Keely and Beulah Elma Sharpless, 80.
Ellis Barker and Elizabeth W. Jones, 80.
Jacob G. Palmer and Ruth A. Hinshaw, 136.
William C. Cowperthwaite and Mary M. Smith, 144.
Walter J. Edgerton and Anna R. Taber, 184.
James W. Edgerton and Edith A. Conroe, 184.
Roy W. Rockwell and Otelia A. Moffitt, 208.
William C. Moffitt and Mary S. Rockwell, 208.
Frederick White and Sarah M. Fisher, 408.
Marshall William. A member of Iowa Yearly Meeting. Notice of a proposed visit by, to Bolivia, 247.
Massachusetts. Remarks on the causes of her high industrial and social condition, 199.
Meditation. On the duty and necessity of religious, 118.
Memorial of Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends, Pa. Concerning Joseph Rhoads, a minister, deceased, 6.
Men have lived gloriously in dungeons, 320.
Mennonites. Notice of, in connection with the relief of the Dukhobortsi, 111.

Mennonites. Account of the origin, and history of, 388.
Meredith Jesse. Brief mention of, 325.
Meteors. Notice of the death of two children by, in Oklahoma, 171.
Mica. How, is obtained, 60.
Milhous Robert. Selections from the letters and memoranda of, 332. 340. 347. 365. 370. 406.
Military glory. The unsatisfying character of, exemplified, 78.
Miller Peter. Account of the saving the life of his enemy, 316.
Ministry and its authority. On the, 5. 25. 42. 105. 147.
Remarkable solemnity attending the, of Mary Dudley, 28.
Observations of Jane Bettle on the necessity for the immediate influence of the Holy Spirit in the exercise of the, 31.
Remarks on the compromising attitude of the hireling, of to-day, 39
True vision greatly needed in the, 78.
The work and character of the, in the primitive church, 101.
On the needs of the, 111.
The indwelling of Christ the strength of the, 111.
Caution in reference to the public exercise of the, 143.
The payment of money in connection with the, degrading, 162.
On clock-work, 169.
The essential preparation for the, 169.
A solemn charge given to the, 175.
Experiences and observations of Maria S. Fox on the exercises in the, 215.
The great lack of in the present day, is spiritual anointing, 225.
An illustration of hireling, 255. 359.
No purely intellectual teaching can take the place of gospel, 271.
Gospel, through earthen vessels, 273.
The dignity of the, 276.
Testimony of Isaac Penington concerning gospel, 291.
A true, is endued with power from on high, 311.
Remarks on speaking from habit and without a fresh power in the, 367.
Immediate Divine revelation the source of true, 385.
On the secularization of the, by lectures on commonplace topics in the pulpit, 413.
Caution to those who travel in the, 415.
Missionary. On the popular use, and true meaning of the term, 105.
Misrepresentation. Remarks on, 179.
Modest. On being selfishly, 108.
Money. The true use of, 2.
Monk. A persecuting, converted, 314.
Morrill Justin D. U. S. Senator from Vermont. Remarks on the death and character of, 207.
Morals in business. Remarks on the value of 319.
Moslem. The devout, 192.
Mother. On the ceaseless love of a, 57.
Mothers. Advice to, 61. 124. 284, 285.
Mother-made man. A, 275.
Mouth germs. Remarks on certain evils entitled, 93.
Movements of ministering Friends, 71. 79. 95. 119. 127. 143. 159. 166. 175. 183. 200. 216, 217. 271. 287. 335. 343. 351. 367. 375. 383. 391. 399.
Music. Advices of London Yearly Meeting against, 130.
On the waste of time spent in learning, 195.

Naas Johann, the Christian soldier of Crefeld, 383.
Nails. On the introduction of wire, in the United States, 92.
"Name your animals." Incident illustrating it is well to, 295.
Napoleon. An answer of, portending evil to France, 373.
National and social decline. One cause of, 287.
Natural History. Bees, 20; Deer, 23; The sting of a bee, 26; The English sparrow, 52; The monkey, 123; The elephant, 123; Terrapin, 245; Turtles, 245; The toad, 266; The whale, 325.
Naudi Dr., of Malta. Account by, in 1813, of the spreading of Christianity in the East, 309.
Naylor James. Testimony of, shortly before his death, 221. 289.
Nazarenes of Hungary a people opposed to war. Notice of the, 39.
Neander. Dying expressions of, 30.
Remarks on the character of, 268.
Negro preacher. Remarkably successful labors of Henry Evans, a, 331.
New Testament. The earliest lists of the books of the, 222, 229.
Need for our periodical. Communication entitled, A, 370.
Noble discontent. A, 205.
Non-resistance. The power of, 27.
Notes from correspondents, 7.
Notes from others, 136. 142. 159. 167. 175. 207. 231. 247. 255. 271. 311. 335. 343. 359. 375.
Notes concerning the Society, 207. 215. 223. 239.
Not commonplace. Remarks on the visitations and operations of the Lord's spirit, entitled, 173.
Not lack of patriotism. Remarks in opposition to war, entitled, 91.
Not yours, but you. Remarks on doing good to others, entitled, 401.

Oaths. The inconsistency of taking judicial, enforced, 233.
Remarks on the above, 250.
Kissing the Bible in judicial, dispensed with in New York, 343.
Obedience to law. Remarks on the evils of disregarding, 15.
Obedience to manifest duty. Essay entitled, 36.
Obedience to parents. The duty of children, 157.
Obedience. The duty of, in the Christian, 286.
Oken the German naturalist, Anecdote of, entitled, A potato day, 301.
Old and young preachers. On, 101.
Old age. Notice of labor performed in, 140.
Old people. The great value of, in the community, 197.
Olives. On the growth of, in California, 172. 282.
Onesimus, as slave, criminal, Christian, preacher. On, 181.
Only a cup of tea. Incident entitled, 19.
Opportunities for doing good. On availing ourselves of, 19. 147. 262. improving the mind. On making use of, 373.
Osborne Louisa, a colored woman. Charitable giving by, 236.
Our privileges and duties as young Friends, by Paul D. I. Maier, 258.

Parents. The duties of, to their children, 157.
Past redemption point. Extract entitled, 295.
Pampered young man. A, 75.
Paper. On the origin of the term "foolscap" applied to, 236.
Pastor. A, declines to receive money for preaching, 244.
Pastors. The character of the, referred to in the New Testament, 101.
Pastoral system. The objections to the, 33. 113.
unknown in the primitive church. The, 34. 101.
Pastor. A, returns money to his congregation, 256.
Reason by a, for resigning his office, 311.
Pastorates. Old time, settled, 127.
Patriotism. The nature of true, 25.
Essay entitled, True, 404.
Paton John G. Reports from, of improved condition of South Sea islanders, 247.
Paul. Remark on the character of the apostle, 129.
Peculiarity inevitable to the Christian, 151.
Pemberton John. Remarks of, on true ministry, 42.
Testimony of Friends concerning the ministry of, 43.
Remarks of, on the death of his brother Israel, 90.
Account of a journey by, in Scotland, 415.
Pennsylvania. Notice of "A Quaker Experiment in Government," an account of the early history of, 34.
The Friendly Association for regaining peace with the Indians in, 237. 242. 254. 261.
Penn William. Notice of an attempt to steal the body of, 103. 128.
A memorial to, as a defender of the rights of juries, proposed in England, 143.
Extracts from an account of the rise of the Society of Friends by, 274.
Notice of a deed from, held by a family in Delaware County, Pa., 291.
Advice of, on reading the Holy Scriptures and the writings of early Friends, 349.
Notice of a work on the family of, by Howard Jenkins, 375.
Remarks of, on unity and liberty, in the gospel, 382.
Pensioning with appreciation. Extract entitled, 121.
Penington Isaac. Testimony of, respecting gospel ministry, 291.
On the true understanding of Scripture, 322.
Plaint against progressive euchre. A, 260.
Plants. On the sleep of, 166.
Plants. The gigantic trees of California, 86; The Banyan tree, 86; The Fountain tree, 86; The Yew-tree, 86; Seedless oranges, 207; The bamboo, 290; The Russian thistle, 309; The India-rubber plant, 317.
Poet for peace. A, 278.
Poetry.—Original. Just beyond, 43; Effectual Aspiration, 46; Effectual Inspiration, 46; I'll steal away to Jesus, 54; To the memory of John Hampton, 62; Hearts and Home, 68; Second childhood, 69; The children, 84; Time-killing, 102; Emphasis, 108; The best mother, 140; Alone, 150; The situation, 187; Our old apple tree, 205; Disarmament, 221; Hymn at sunrise, 223; Consecration, 234; On the threshold of the year, 252; The gathering home, 276. 304; Morning thoughts, 309; Lines by Robert Hatton, 316; Christ speaketh still, 355; Peace Musings, 359; From Edenvista, 372; God loveth all, 373; The Solitary Way, 380.
Poetry.—Selected. All days for Thee, my God, 75; The book of God, 99; Building the bridge, 285; Blossoms in age, 301; Boys, 317; The church walking with the world, 14; Courage, my soul, 75; Come ye apart, and rest awhile, 118; Cumbered about much serving, 109; At the door, 54; Duty or love-which? 84; The Dukhobortsi, 292; Endurance, 407; The Commemoration poem, 377; Fresh Air, 54; God's care, 132; Humility, 21; His beautiful way, 29; On hearing Joseph Hoag preach, 62; The House of Obed Edom, 244; Hope, 340; In His shadow, 70; incompleteness, 181; Lines, 180; Lost names, 188; The living Christ, 230; The lily of the valley, 262; Lines on the death of Jonathan Taylor of Ohio, 283. 349; Live, 300; Lines, 330; As a mustard seed, 21; Mites of love, 29; The Master's touch, 93; My Message, 325; My Refuge, 348; Not size, but perfection, 21; No place for boys, 190; Now that the war is over, 257; "On earth-born joys why do we fondly cling," 340; Old home friends, 366; A psalm, 102; Playing meeting, 124; The prayer perfect, 188, A pilgrim bird, 284; On prayer, 351; Regeneration, 21; Retrospection, 197; Spirit-vision, 269; Two toilers, 146; Twenty-third psalm, 197; Truth, 370; "Verse," 212; Why do we wait, 84; When shall we write? 135; What sickness means to the believer, 172; Who is my neighbor? 181; War echoes, 278; When I have time, 303; A woman's prayer, 308; Yearnings, 353.

Porto Rico. Description of the island of, 18.
Potts Rebecca, of Pottstown, Pa. Faithfulness of, in maintaining a meeting for worship, 73. 129.
Practical matters. Hints on various, 204. 214. 317.
Practice vs. Preaching, 275.
Prayer. Remarks on, by John Woolman, 11.
On answers to, 15. 86.
A busy man's, 129.
On, by dictation, 177.
Thoughts on, 199. 205.
may be effectual without words, 293.
Preacher. A, should be a preacher of truth, 279.
Preaching of the gospel. An unfaithful, apologized for, 255.
Preaching defined, 111.
Priestcraft. How did the word, find a place in our language, 247.
Prisoner's pardon. The, and comments, 148.
Present day service of the Society of Friends. The, 265.
Preservation to be experienced only in watchfulness unto prayer, 287.
Principle and personality. Essay entitled, 4.
Prisons. Many excellent religious works have been written in, 75.
Promptness facilitates work, 15.
Profane man overcome with good. A, 119.
Progressive euchre. On, as a form of gambling, 260.
Protestant Catholicism. Essay entitled, 7.
Providential guidance, 9. 43. 86. 185. 316. 379.
Presbyterians. The observance of Christmas and Easter, disapproved of by a body of, 359.
Public opinion. Remarks of W. E. Gladstone on an international, 300.
Pulpit. Notice of themes advertised for the, in a single week, 175.
Punctuality. On training children in the habit of, 284.
Purity is the world's need, 262.
"Put up thy sword." Remarkable preservation entitled, 379.
Pyramid. Amount of material in the Great, 106.

Quaker experiment in governing, by Isaac Sharpless. Notice of A, 34. 49.
Quakerism. Ten talents of, named, 111.
The strength of, is communion with God, 207.

Quakerism. The new, reviewed, 274.
Query of an awakened soul. Essay entitled, The, 45.
Quickening of the moral faculties. A, 243.
Quiet things of nature. Extract entitled, The, 93.

Railroad cars. The cost of, 171.
Railway. The first, in Central Africa, 77.
train providentially saved. A, 316.
Rationalism. The chill of, 15.
Reading matter. The great need of watchfulness regarding, 324.
Red cross movement. On the rise and development of the, 37.
Remarks on rendering assistance by Friends in the, 33.
Reed, Geo. W. On the convincement of, by reading Barclay's Apology, 383.
Religion. The first offer of Divine help in, to be accepted, 28.
consists in communion and union with God, 31.
On being faithful in what are called little things in, 49.
On hypocrisy in, 75.
Belief in, implies obligations of duty, 104.
Remarks on making, a tool, 111.
Remarks on a cheap, 127.
The parade of works of, likely to stifle a growth in grace, 157.
High professors of, may be strangers to true conversion, 158.
The benefit of spiritual retirement and silence in, 159.
The future spread of spiritual, 167.
The nature and effect of true, 176.
Salutary advice to a young convert to, 195.
The necessity of regeneration in, 223.
Stillness of the soul essential to, 226.
Taking up the cross and following Christ the way to perfection in, 230.
The way to judge of, is by doing our duty, 231.
On every day, 236. 282.
On sunshine in, 285.
The degenerating influence of art upon, 292.
On talking upon, 302.
Religious notes, 15. 39. 47. 96. 103. 111.
labors. Remarks on true ground of, 41.
feelings. An appeal to, the most efficient means of reforming men, 77.
meditation. On the duty and usefulness of, 118. 159.
Responsibility. On individual, 44.
Reverence is the soul of religion, 6.
Revelation. Immediate Divine, the rock on which Christ would build his church, 385.
Rest is often obtained by change of avocations, 167.
Retribution. The effects of, reciprocal, 246.
Rhoads Joseph. Memorial of Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends, Pa., concerning, 6.
Incidents in the life of, 36.
Righteousness. On doing 178. 354.
Ritualistic services and oratorios. Essay entitled, 308.
Robert College. Remarks on the history and influence of the, in the Ottoman Empire, 213.
Roberts Jacob. Instructive counsel conveyed by the late, 36.
Roman Catholics. A radical mistake of, 159.
Statistics of, in the United States, 265.
Flowers at funerals prohibited by a bishop of, 271.
Notice of arbitrary acts of, in the Society Islands, 396.
Roman Catholic missionary converted to Protestantism. A, 123. 183. 314. doctrines and practices creeping into the Episcopalian denomination, 181.
countries. On the prevalence of gambling in, 260.
Roman Catholicism. On a reformation in, 247.
On the root principles of, 265.
in the Philippines. On, 271.
Round about Rocouncey. Essay entitled, 52.
Rome. Protestantism is on the increase in, 255.
Notice of the catacombs of, 386.
Rothschild. Baron, of, Paris. Anecdote of, 387.
Rugby colony in Eastern Tennessee. The end of the, 20.
Rush Dr. Benjamin. Notice of the efforts of, on behalf of peace, etc., 91.
Russia. Proposed emigration of the Dukhobortsi from, 14. 38. 42. 60. 79. 95. 171. 203. 217. 225.
Appeal for funds on behalf of the above, 20, 33.
Remarks on the appeal of the Czar of, to the European Powers against war, 57. 75. 103. 118. 205. 374. 394.
Russia. Notice of the Dukhobortsi from, in Cyprus, 87. 171.
Account of the recent life of the Dukhobortsi in, 117. 125. 130.
The desires of Alexander I. of, for international arbitration, 118.
A letter of Alexander I. of, in favor of peace, 137.
Letter of the Representative body of Kansas Yearly Meeting to the Czar of, 205.
On the earlier history of the Dukhobortsi in, 261.
Notice of an appeal by Friends to the Czar of, on behalf of the Dukhobortsi, and against war, 313.
Visit of a Czar of, to a Friend's meeting in 1712, 318.
Address of the Meeting for Sufferings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to the American Commissioners at the International Conference called by the Czar of, 387.
Address of the New York Bar Association to the Emperor of, 394.
Russian nobleman and his Bible. The, 341. thistle. The newly discovered value of the, 309.

Samoa Islands. Notice of efforts in Christianizing the, 348.
Savery William, the minister. The concern of, that Friends should maintain integrity in their dealings, 62.
Schaff Philip, and his work. An account of, 134. 139. 146. 155. 164. 170. 178. 186.
Remarks on the above, 218. 306.
Science is reaffirming religion, 159.
Scientific incredibilities. Extract entitled, 92.
Scilly Islands. On the extensive growing of flowers in the, 63.
School. Remarks on a, as "a workshop of the Holy Spirit," 81.
Manual training taught to girls as well as to boys in a, 133.
Account of the establishment of the John Warder, in Amsterdam, 173. 196.
A, of housekeeping established in Boston, Mass., 214.
A method of interesting children at, in birds, 340.
A, should teach children how to learn, 350.
The First day, responsible for the loss of young men and women from the churches, 364.
Schools for industrial training planned for in Cuba and Porto Rico. 255.
in Hawaii. Notice of numerous, 287.
Education in agriculture an important subject to be introduced into, 300.
Scholarship. On the abuse of, 347.
Scruples. Remark of Emerson on, regarding, 167.
Security in obscurity. Extract entitled, 3.
Secret of power. The, 355.
Seeking to please. On, 111.
Sensuality shuts us off from hearing God's voice, 397.
Sea Islands, S. C. Appeal on behalf of sufferers on the, by a recent calamity, 139.
Self, the stronghold of Satan, 245.
Self-denial. On the happy effects of, 258.
Self-mastery. The imperative need of, through the Holy Spirit, 370.
Sermon I like best. The, 46.
An impressive, from a blind man, 303.
Selfishness. There is scarcely a crime which does not originate in, 316.
Service of sons. Essay entitled, The, 175.
Serving another a sufficient reward, 329.
Set the clock right. Remarks on individual conduct entitled, 278.
Sharp, Isaac. Notice of the publication of a life of, 187.
Shepherd of Hermas. An ancient commentary on some words in the, 98.
Silence. Essay entitled, A noble, 191.
The strength of, 279.
Love, even of the mind, 341.
Sincerity. On, 106.
Sin of unbelief. The, 196.
Singing. A prescribed form of, in worship presumptuous, 396.
Sins. On the danger of little, 46.
Little, make the way easy for greater ones, 46.
On experiencing freedom from, 47.
Slave. Happy religious condition of an aged man in Virginia, formerly a, 67.
A white missionary to the blacks becomes a, 130.
Confidence of a former, in the approach of death, 371.
Slavery in the United States. A reminiscence of, 59.
Notice of the efforts of Friends for the abolition of, 372. 379. 387. 405. 413.
Social influence. The effect upon character, 154.
Soldiers. Remarks on labors for the good of, 256.
Soliloquy. A, 107.
Solomon Haym, a Jew. Remark on civil and religious liberty by, 241.
Source of Christian virtues. The, 234.
South Sea Islands Notice of the change wrought by Christianity in, 315. 327. 334. 339. 348. 386. 395. 403.
Spain. Review of the horrors of the late war with, 132.
On the moral cost of the late war with, 135.
Remarks on the fallacy of "manifest destiny" in connection with the war with, 190.
Spirit of teachableness. Essay entitled, The, 83.
Spider webs spun into cords, 378.
Spiritual rest. Remarks of Mary Clemmer Hudson on finding, 181.
Spurgeon. Charles H. Testimony of, against clerical titles, 218.
Stillness, the acceptable attitude of the soul, 226.
Stokes, John S. Reminiscences of the late, 337.
Stokes, Robert. Account of remarkable circumstances attending the death of, in 1892, 337.
Start at the bottom. Incidents in the lives of two young men entitled, 356.
Sturge, Joseph. Protests of, in 1830 against an oratorio in Birmingham, Eng., 308.
Success or failure. On causes of, 17.
Remarks on the path of, in business. 338.
In spiritual things, and even in temporals, is by Divine providence, 347.
Summary of events, 7. 15. 23. 31. 39. 48. 55. 64. 71. 80. 88. 96. 104. 112. 120. 128. 136. 144. 152. 160. 167. 176. 183. 192. 200. 208. 216. 224. 231. 240. 248. 256. 264. 271. 279. 288. 295. 304. 311. 320. 328. 335. 343. 352. 359. 367. 375. 384. 391. 400. 408. 416.
Suspicions. What to do with our, 109.
Swearing. The objections to judicial, enforced, 233.
Sympathy. The value of expressions of, illustrated, 19.
The meaning of the word, 145.

Taking father's place. Extract entitled, 4.
Taking mother's place. Extract entitled, 159.
Tale-bearing. Remarks on, 331.
Talent. Remarks on faithfully improving the one, 46.
Taylor Jonathan, of Mt. Pleasant, Ohio. Brief account of the religious character and death of, 263.
Lines on the death of, 283. 349.
Telegraph. Account by Prof. S. F. Morse of the establishment of the first electric, 158.
Teacher. The high value of the conscientious, 331. 397.
Temptation. God's furnace for trying faith. Essay entitled, 27.
The first steps in, to be resisted, 49.
A feature of, is that it appears to the soul in disguise, 122.
Keep as far from, as possible, 166.
Tennyson the poet. A touching letter to, from his mother, 93.
Terrapin and turtles. On catching, on the coast of Georgia. 245.
Thanksgiving. On innumerable subjects for, 167.
Theatre. The delusion of attempting to reform the, 142.
An appeal against the attendance of the, 342.
The, admitted to be the chief instrument in the degredation of American morals, 359.
Theological differences often arise from diversities of mental constitution and temper, 70.
Thinking and living. On the close connection between, 132.
Thinking no evil. On, 358.
Thornton James, of Byberry, Pa. Remarks of, on avoiding the honors and friendships of this world, 46.
Threes. A group of, to attend to, 279.
Thrilling scene. A, and presence of mind of a boy, 172.
Tiger's bath. A, 390.
Time. The value of, to be inculcated in our families, 58.
Considerations on rightly improving our, 140.
Remarks on the value of, 407.
Tobacco. The use of, not allowed by Micronesian Christians, 76.
An employer of young men, declines those who use cigarettes, 353.
Tolstoy Fund in aid of the Dukhobortsi. Notice of the, 138.
Tolstoy Leo. Remarks of John Bellows on the character of, 261.
A sketch of the character of, 301.
Remarks on, 306.

Tongue. The, a powerful agent for good or evil, 158.
Tongue fires. Remarks on evil-doing entitled, 31.
Tract. A tale of good, through the instrumentality of a, 86.
Tract Association of Friends. Notice of proceedings of, 215. 247. 279.
Report of proceedings of 302.
Tract Repository. Annual report of the publisher of the, for 1898, 206.
Trees. Remarks on, as types of life and beauty, 86.
Trials of a housekeeper. Remarks on the, 346.
Trust and belief. On the distinction between, 47.
Trusts. Remarks on disregarding the claims of a son, entitled. The law of, 331.
Truth. Remarks on him, who holds the, in the intellect only, 118.
not popular, 142.
A strict adherance to, necessary to preserve the morals of a community, 146.
Trials accompanying the telling of, 248.
On speaking the, without giving offence, 291.
Remarks on needless fears for the, 302.
Tupper's Proverbial Philosophy. Extract from, 314.
Turkey. On the important influence for good exerted in, by the Robert College, 213.
Two sides. Extract entitled, 303.
Tyre. The doom of, as foretold in Holy Scripture, and its fulfillment, 379.

Unbelief. The sin of, 196.
Upward way not an easy, but a blessed one. The, 271.
United States. The policy of the, has been against the acquisition of transmarine territory, 69.
Observations on the growth of, 119.
Review of the horrors of the late war between the, and Spain, 132.
On the cost to the people of the, of the war with Spain, 135.
Remarks on the treatment by the, of other races, 142.
The present growth of militarism in the, 177. 190. 293.
The flag of the, and comments, 197.
not governed by plutocrats, 206.
Names of the mothers of the Presidents of the, 206.
The danger to, of becoming a military republic, 260.
Unions and units. On, 114.
Unity of the secular and the religious in the Christian life. The, 67.
Unity of the world. On the, 94.

Vacations. The need of consistency to principle by Friends during, 375.

Waiting upon God. The blessed effects of, 11. 350.
Waldmeir Theophilus. Appeal by, on behalf of an asylum for the insane in Syria, 367.
Notice of, in Syria, 381.
Waldenses in Western N. Carolina. Account of a recent visit to, 3.
Walton Joseph. Remarks of the editor of the Christian Advocate on the character of, 113.
Wanted—a young man. Extract entitled, 5.
War. Divine love engaged in repairing the desolations of, 1.
Testimony of Chas. H. Spurgeon against, 2.
Horrors of, in the bombardment of Copenhagen, 7.
Incompatible with love to men, 7.
Silent thanks commanded by Com. Schley for his victory, 7.
Notice of proceedings of The Lake Mohonk Conference on International Arbitration, 12. 374. 390.
The sure preventive of, a changed heart, 17.
Not to be eradicated by an Anglo-American Alliance, 29.
Notice of the Nazarenes of Hungary, a people opposed to, 39.
Remarks on the labors of the Christian Commission among soldiers, 41.
Remarks on the appeal of the Czar of Russia against, 57. 75. 89. 118. 374. 387.
The "bubble reputation" of military glory, 78.
On the proposed federation of the Anglo-Saxon race as a preventive of, 81.
A, in the name of religion an unspeakable degradation, 89.
Remarks in opposition to, entitled "not lack of patriotism," 91.
War. Notice of Friends' publications respecting, to be had at No. 304 Arch Street, Philadelphia, 95.
Remarks on the views of President McKinley on the late, with Spain, 110.
The desires of Czar Alexander I. for international arbitration instead of, 118.
Woful results, inseparable from, 121.
Review of the late, between the United States and Spain, 132.
On the moral cost of the late, with Spain, 135.
Letter of Czar Alexander I. in favor of peace, 137.
Murders directly traceable to the late, with Spain, 137.
On the late atrocious, in the Soudan, 150.
On public rejoicings at "peace jubilees," 161.
The Warder school in Amsterdam, Holland, founded by Friends, from a testimony against, 173. 196.
On the present growth of militarism in the United States, 177.
On the fallacy of the expression "manifest destiny" in connection with the, with Spain, 190.
A man religiously constrained to return pension money to the government, 243.
on Christian principles in Madagascar, 244.
A Christian confession on refusing to fight, 250.
The confession of Jesus Christ before Pilate in regard to, 252.
Notice of the testimony of Friends in Norway and Denmark against, 258.
On the danger to the United States of becoming a military republic, 260.
Arraignment of America by E. H. Crosby for her present, 278.
Statistics of the destruction of the human race by, 291.
The testimony of the Dukhobors against, 291.
Notice of prominent men in the United States opposed to, 306.
On the horrors of, in the Philippines, 322.
Heathen natives of South Sea Islands prevented from committing murder in, by conscientious feelings, 327.
The effects of, in Great Britain in preventing her manufacturers to compete with those of the United States, 345.
Testimony of Friends against, presented to the Plenipotentiaries at Aix-la-Chapelle in 1748, 362.
Remarks of Thomas Jefferson and Benjamin Franklin on the folly of, 364.
The real character of, 366.
Eventually to disappear as the kingdom of Christ advances, 373.
Remarks on the Lake Mohonk Conference on the present outlook in regard to, 374.
Remarks of Bishop Thoburn on the evils of, in Manila, 375.
Trust in the Lord exemplified, 379.
Notice of Johann Naas, the Christian soldier of Crefeld, 383.
Address of Friends to American Commissioners in the International Conference at the Hague, 387.
Address of the New York Bar Association, respecting the Conference at The Hague, 394.
Warren, John. Notice of providential leadings of, 185.
Watch. The wonders of a, 317.
"Watch and pray." Extract entitled, 20.
Washington General. Anecdote of, 316.
Anecdote of the courtesy of, 389.
A corporal rebuked by, 407.
"We played cards and drank wine." Extract entitled, 77.
Weakness. Our times of, may become times of spiritual strength, 95.
Webb Deborah B. Preface to the diary and memoranda of, by Anna M. Townsend, 12.
Wesley John. Anecdote of, 2.
Westtown Boarding School. Notice of the present session of, 79.
Notice of the new illustrated history of, 351.
Notice of exercises at the close of the session at, Sixth Month 23rd, 1899, 399.
Westtown Old Scholars' Association. Notice of a proposed reunion of, 111.
Notice of the meeting of, in Philadelphia, 119.
Appeal on behalf of the Memorial Fund of, 345.
Westtown. Notice of the meeting of the, at Westtown at the time of the Centennial Anniversary, 359. 375.
Comments on the above, 377.
Poem read at the Centennial meeting of the, 377.
Well-doing begins in the heart, 165.
Whale. A battle with a sperm, 325.
What is the matter with modern preaching? 225.
What right beginnings do for us, 116.
What think ye of Christ? Extract entitled, 187.
Where ignorance is blest. Essay entitled, 5.
Whirlwind and the cold. The Lord in the, 247.
Whither are Friends drifting? Essay entitled, 11.
Why am I not a Christian? 150.
Wilbur John. Prophetic declarations of, respecting changes in the Society of Friends, 1.
Wheeler Daniel. Notice of the death of, in the course of a religious visit, 197.
Remarks on the labors of, in the South Sea Islands, 315. 327. 334. 339. 348.
Whittier John G. Regret of, on witnessing the departure of Friends from their principles, 79.
Why do we go to meeting? 250.
Wilberforce William. The religious character of, 126.
Williams Roger. The character of, as a boy, 111.
Wives of ministers often lead lives of self-denial and discipline, 247.
Women ordained to preach by Congregational bodies, 136.
The needs of, in domestic life, 212. 346.
The spiritual equality of men and, in the Society of Friends, 281.
The position of, in 2800 B. C., 303.
The trials of housekeepers, 346.
Delicate work entrusted to, 402.
Advice to educated, 403.
Woolman John. Notice of the death of, in York, England, 197.
Work and worry. On the difference between, 79.
World. Remark of a man of the, on dying, 263.
Worship. On true, 13. 47. 100.
On the views of Friends in regard to, 73. 153. 216. 241. 319.
Something mistaken for spiritual, 96.
Experience of Stephen Grellet in silent, 100.
Remarks on the performance of, 132. 223. 350.
On, that is not acceptable, 136.
Remarks on true prayer, as a part of, 177.
Silence in, enjoined by the Gotamists in India, 191.
On simplicity in buildings for, 202.
Remarks of Deborah B. Webb on the value of silent, 218.
The value of silent, spreading in different denominations, 241. 279. 350.
The daily observance of a time of silent, by the Comrades of the Quiet Hour, 249.
The, of God without his Spirit is idolatry, 270.
The zeal of early Friends in the attendance of meetings for, 287.
On the evolution of reading in meetings for, 295.
The important duty of attending mid-week meetings for, 311.
Inquiry as to the cause for non-attendance of meetings for, 271.
Remarks on irreligious, 314.
The Divine presence the needed vitalizer and quickener in all meetings for, 362.
Essay entitled, What is Worship? 396.
On the increasing need of quiet thoughtfulness as a preparation for, 414.
Writers. Advice to young, 347.

Yarnall Peter. Acknowldgment by, to Uwchlan Monthly Meeting of Friends, 324.
"Ye are the light of the world." Essay entitled, 126.
Year. On the distinction between a new and another, 252.
Yeardley John, and his travels (continued from vol. lxxi, page 410), 26. 59. 66. 76. 83. 99. 107. 114. 122. 142. 149. 156. 165. 182. 191. 193. 234. 268. 318. 401.
Martha. On the nature of true religion, 31.
Yearly Meeting. Baltimore. Statistics of membership of, 375
Canada, 1899. Notice of the proceedings of, 416.
Kansas. Letter of the Representative body of, to the Czar of Russia, 205.
London. The only church organization for the transaction of business held without interruption for 225 years, 127.
London. Advices contained in epistles of, 131.
London. On the institution of the discipline in, 219. 227. 235. 246. 251.

Yearly Meeting. London, 1836. Unsound sentiments in the epistle of, pointed out, 115.
London, 1896. Women recognized by, as constituent parts of meetings for church affairs, 215.
London, 1899. Notice of a change in the clerkship of, 399.
Yearly Meeting. New England. Held at Westerly, R. I., 1899. Notice of proceedings of, 391.
North Carolina, 1898. Observations on the proceedings of, 71. 79.
Ohio, 1898. Notice of proceedings of, 98.
Philadelphia, 1899. Notice of proceedings of, 313. 321.
Yearly Meeting. Western, 1898. Notice of, 119. 239.
Young man. On the qualifications of a, wanted in business, 5.
Young men. Remarks on the lamentable number of, without purpose, 175.
No room for half-hearted and superficial, in business, 276.

XUM

XUM